Proceedings: (IN CHAMBERS) ORDER DENYING MOTION FOR ORDER CONSOLIDATING DOCKET [323]

Having inquired into the matter at length, the Court advises counsel that it is unable, without undue burden and inefficient use of court resources, to renumber the defendants on the docket in United States v. Martinez-Reyes, CR 23-524-DMG, to reflect their order in the First Superseding Indictment. Nonetheless, it is the order of defendants reflected in the most recent indictment, the First Superseding Indictment in Martinez-Reyes, that controls for substantive purposes.

The motion for order consolidating the docket is therefore DENIED due to undue administrative burden. Counsel for Defendants who have appeared in CR 23-258-DMG, United States v. Sai Zhang, et al., may appear in Martinez-Reyes in accordance with the Court's usual procedures.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
